

WOEA-R 2016-17 Program Survey

WOEA-R members, I hope you will take the opportunity to help me arrange programming that is of interest to you. Emmy has done a fantastic job of providing diverse and varied programs, and I will need your help filling those shoes. Please complete the following survey, and either e-mail it to me at sdobberstein@juno.com, or snail mail it to Sandy Dobberstein, 237 Old Carriage Dr., Englewood, OH 45322.

Programs recently offered were: Tours of the old Montgomery County Courthouse, the Dayton Art Museum, Dayton International Peace Museum, Olive Oasis, Carillon Brewing Company, Friendship Village, The Winery at Versailles and St. Charles Senior Living Center. Speakers were from Woodland Cemetery, Welcome Dayton, the Ohio Attorney General's Office, and representatives from UD, WSU and Sinclair.

The following programs have been suggested. Please indicate your interests AND suggest other places/topics:

- Guided art class (Pinot's Palette)
- WACO Air Museum (Troy)
- Packard Museum (Dayton)
- Johnston Farm (Piqua)
- Neil Armstrong Museum (Wapakoneta)
- Young's Dairy (Yellow Springs)
- Carriage Hill Farm
- Garst Museum (Greenville)
- Behind the scenes at the Schuster
- Clifton Mill (Clifton)
- Patterson Homestead
- Aullwood Farm
- Bicycle Museum (New Bermen)

Please list your suggestions and contact information for the people/places (if you have it).

In addition to programming, we need suggestions for restaurants that have a private meeting room, separate from the dining room, so that we may hold a brief meeting after the program. We have successfully used La Piazza, Café Rodriguez, Company 7 BBQ, Ray's Wine Spirits, Dayton Art Institute, Shen's Szechuan & Sushi, Greenfire Bistro, and El Rancho Grande. Your suggestions:

Remember: Meetings are at 11 a.m. the third Wednesday of the month except January, February, July, & August
